PROTECTION

(EDITORIAL)

A burglary was committed in a home near here last weekend. The housewife discovered the disturbance when she returned home and notified the county sheriff's office by phone. That was about 11:30 p.m.

Shortly thereafter the local constable arrived. He hadn't been notified directly, but had received word from a policeman in a neighboring town who had picked up a report of the crime.

The constable took down a report, then left about 12:30 a.m. No sheriff's deputies had arrived. They did not arrive until shortly after 1 a.m., one hour and a half later.

That housewife could have returned to find the burglars still there, but little chance would have existed for either apprehending the burglars or saving the woman had she been attacked. The sheriff's deputies couldn't have arrived much earlier. The only two men on duty in the entire county were busy on a call near Alum Rock.

During the period when the housewife placed that call to the sheriff's office, there should have been two cars on duty in the county, but one driver was ill—thus one car. That was an exception, but, had she discovered the burglary after 2 a.m., there still would have been only one car, and that is no exception.

On the 2 a.m. to 8 a.m. shift, the county sheriff has the magnificent total of one car patrolling the entire unincorporated area of this county—Gilroy to the San Mateo county line.

Campbell, Saratoga, Cupertino, or any other unincorporated residential area receives the same inadequate protection from that one lone 2 to 8 a.m. car.

In Santa Clara County, as in all but three other California counties, the population of unincorporated areas grew faster than that of the cities during the past 10 years, yet the protection provided by the county governments, particularly in the case of Santa Clara County, has remained far below the level necessary to assure the suburban residents of a safe and peaeable existence.

According to a recent survey of 11 California counties by the League of California Cities, Santa Clara County, with 44.2 percent of total population of 288,852, residing outside incorporated cities, provides only 7.9 percent net of its total expenditures for protection of persons and property.

San Mateo County, with smaller population, 234,030, and ALSO with a lower percentage of population in unincorporated areas, spent a greater amount, 13.2 percent net, of its annual expenditures on protection of persons and property.

In a comparison of populations and expenditures of 11 central California counties, Santa Clara County, although it is number four from the top in population, was number 11 on the bottom in percentage of expenditures for protection.

The Santa Clara County car on the 2 to 8 a.m. shift averages 100 miles per night. Seldom is its two-man staff available or near enough to answer any emergency call in time to prevent a crime or catch the criminal. Although the heaviest premeditated crime rate in the county occurs during the 6 to 11 p.m. period, the premeditated crimes generally occur in greatest number after midnight. The single car on duty from 2 a.m. receives calls varying from a family quarrel to murder and, at one given time, the crew may have as many as nine calls waiting while the men are investigating a tenth.

Average of time consumed in answering a call is 19 minutes. Of particular importance is the factor of the unknown in each case. The crew seldom knows what to expect when it is sent to answer an emergency call. A reported prowler may prove to be an honest citizen attempting to catch a would-be burglar in the act. The deputy who knocks on a door in answer to a family disturbance report may be met by a drunken man with gun blazing.

The number of calls per night varies each week. It increases during the summer and on weekends, slacks off during cold weather and early part of the weeks. At no time can there be an accurate prediction of the number and type of crimes to be perpetrated during a given period.

Although there are only two men in one car on duty during that fateful 2 to 8 a.m. period, the sheriff's office employs an estimated 74 deputies. According to reports, the entire number works, but its great majority is on daytime duty.

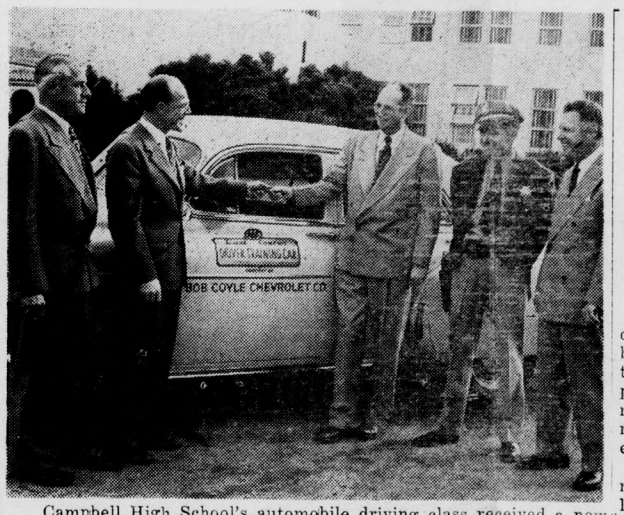

Evening, night and early morning crimes are permitted to occur through lack of preventive work by the department. Even the investigative functions are curtailed, to cover only the most important crimes, largely due, again according to report, to lack of adequate staff.

Compare this one-car service for the whole county to Campbell's protective and crime-preventive needs for its estimated population of 15,000. Many a householder and parent may well cringe at the thought of the potential disaster to his family in event of criminal entry or attack. The possibilities of crime prevention by the county law officers are nil. The chances of apprehension of a lawbreaker only slightly higher.

STATE APPROVES SCHOOL DISTRICT FUND APPLICATION FOR $1,663,588

The proposed building program for Campbell Union School District was given definite financial backing this week with word received that the State Allocaions Board had given approval of an application of $1,663,588 to carry out the project.

The approval is condiional on voters of the district approving a $235,000 bond issue to bring the district up to bonded indebtedness capacity, and make it elegible to receive state funds. Voters must also approve, at the same time, receipt of state money for the program.

The allocation provides for eight construction projects containing additions to or the completion of 15 classrooms, 3 multi-purpose, 2 kitchens and 1 administration building at the three existing sites. It also approves acquisition of 4 sites and construction of 51 classrooms, 5 kindergartens, 5 multipurpose rooms with kitchens and necessary subsidiary facilities and also furniture for the above facilities.

Superintendent Wm. C. Henley said plans for the bond election will get under way immediately.

Also approved were allocations of $694,916 for Moreland Elementary School, and $475,181 for Cambrian Elementary School.

Assembly Candidates Give Voters Platform Outlines At C of C Meet

Some 50 members and guests of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce were on hand Wednesday evening to hear candidats for th 29th Assembly district post outline their platforms. Chamber President Eugene W. Barnes presided.

Attorney Richard Morton gave a brief talk on Proposition No. 3 on the November ballot, and urged all present to support the plan for reorganization of the state's inferior court system.

Republican candidate Chas. S. Gubser, seeking the assembly post, stressed need for water conservation in the county. He outlined ways and means whereby he proposes to seek alleviation of the water situation in the event of his election.

R. O. Del Mutolo, the democratic candidate for the same office, stressed need for adequate civilian defense preparations. He said this is the most important issue confronting the people of Santa Clara County.

Tom Burnett reported that his Dollar Day committee of the chamber is completing plans for the special event. Regular agenda of the chamber meeting was cut short to allow sufficient time for the political meeing.

Fund Solicitors Don't Represent Local Legion Post

Campbell American Legion Post 596 through its commander, Ed Lee, issued a public statement notice today that it is not selling tickets or soliciting contributions for any dance or post benefit this month.

Commander Lee issued the statement in response to inquiries from several local merchants who said that they had been approached for funds by men from a Legion post in a nearby community.

These solicitors are in no way connected with Campbell Post 596 nor are they authorized to represent the post, Lee emphasized.

If any members of Campbell Post are asked to sell tickets to a post function or to seek contributions for post welfare work, these members will be carrying identification cards bearing signature of the post commander and authorizing the bearer to represent this post.

Moreland And Cambrian Schools Get Allocations

Moreland and Cambrian Elementary Schools this week received approval from the State Allocation Board of fund allotments for construction of needed classrooms and other facilities.

Moreland's grant of $694,916, will provide for a 10-acre school site near Quito Park subdivision, recently approved by the County Planning Commission and State Board of Schoolhouse Planning. The site will eventually have two kindergartens and six classrooms, grades one through six. A 12-acre site on Bucknall Road will provide classrooms for seventh and eighth grades. Here there will be seven classrooms, music, manual training and homemaking rooms.

On the Payne Avenue site of the present school, the original building, erected in 1894, will be razed and two kindergartens, six classrooms and a multipurpose room will be constructed.

Already underway is a steel bus garage north of the present school. When completed it will be used for five classrooms pending construction of further buildings.

An acceptance election is to be held in the near future to cover purchase of site and architect's fees.

Cambrian District was allotted $475,181. Of this figure, $42,131 will be available following a bond election to qualify for the state aid.

State funds will provide an additional four acres, paving, playground equipment, 12 classrooms, two kindergartens, boys' shop, girls' homemaking rooms; a 10-acre separate site to have eight classrooms, multi-purpose room, and administration offices. Grades kindergarten through fifth would be housed on the future site. Present site development plans would handle classes from kindergarten through eighth.

Only $4,900 For Community Service Fund After Four Weeks of Canvassing Area

Campbell's Community Service Fund drive passed its fourth week with less than half its $11,639.80 goal pledged. Precinct captains and workers have been laboring hard to raise the necessary amount to keep local youth and welfare programs on a full schedule, but their efforts have brought returns of $4,900, far lower than hoped for by the Service Fund committee.

Crux of the problem appears to be the substantial donations which local residents have made in outside communities where they are employed, stated George Kemp, publicity chairman. They gave where they worked, and failed to realize that they should have given where they and their children live. It is the home community which must benefit from residents' contributions.

Volunteer workers were urged to recanvass their territories for homes they may have missed, but even this double check is not expected to bring too encouraging results since seventy percent of the precinct captains have already reported their districts compelte.

Another list of workers was released this week by C. P. Klassen, drive manager. The following names are in addition to those published in the Campbell Press two weeks ago: Mesdames H. R. Glaw, R. V. Hoover, Robert M. Dunn, William J. Wadsworth, J. D. Cantoni, C. L. Ackerman, E. F. Ballot, M. F. Hughes, W. R. Morgan, E. Spurlen, Ira Grim, Nelson Cowdery, A. C. Currie, Ralph Hyde, E. H. Hoerler, G. H. Parker, L. J. Hill, Rex Saunders, D. B. Gould and Miss Mary Fablinger.

KIWANIS SPEAKER SUPPORTS COURT REORGANIZATION

Arguments in favor of Proposition No. 3 on the November ballot, the proposal to reorganize the inferior court system, were presented at he Campbell Kiwanis meeing Tuesday noon by Atorny meeting Tuesday noon by Attorney Richard Morton.

Mark Purmort, program chairman, introduced the speaker. William C. Henley, president, conducted the meeting. C. P. Klassen was given a rising voice of thanks by the club for his efforts in behalf of the local unit during the state convention last week in Santa Cruz.

Several convention reports were heard and others were tabled until they can be heard at future meetings.

In speaking on Proposition 3, Attorney Morton said there are 768 courts in California which exercise jurisdiction over cases below the Superior Court. There are six different kinds of city courts and two kinds of township courts. Except in those cities in which municipal courts presently exist, there are at least two inferior courts functioning in every incorporated city in the state. In some cities there are as many as three different kinds of such courts.

Morton pointed out that with the existence of so many types of inferior courts there is an unnecessary and unwarranted duplication of judicial functions resulting in waste and confusion.

A consolidation of these courts, he said, would result in elimination of unnecessary duplication of courtroom facilities, judicial offices and clerical assistants, with resultant savings to the taxpayer and increased efficiency in the administration of justice.

Proposition 3, he explained, will provide for a simplified inferior court structure with only two types of courts below the Superior Court—a municipal court and a justice court. Each county would be divided into districts, and in each there would be but one court. The type of court would depend upon the population in the district.

In order that the system may be flexible to meet changing conditions of this rapidly developing state, he declared, all other provisions of the plan are left to the Legislature and the respective boards of supervisors.

The plan of reorganization, proposed by the Judicial Council of California, under chairmanship of Chief Justice Phil S. Gibson, endeavors to keep the inferior courts to be created, close to the people.

Public convenience would be increased. Judges of the courts within the districts would be elected by the people of the districts and could not be removed by an appointive power as is the current practice in many of the state's inferior courts. Caliber of many of the judges would be increased due to more rigid qualification requirements.

There is no known organized opposition to the proposed constitutional amendment. It has received endorsement from the State Bar, State Chamber of Commerce, California State Federation of Labor, AFL; CIO, Justices and Constables Association of California, California District Attorneys Association, California State Sheriffs Association and representatives of many cities and counties and other organizations.

Water Company Utility Plant Site OK'd By Board

O. T. Martin's request for adjustment in county ordinance provisions to permit him to erect a neon sign on San Jose-Los Gatos Road and Campbell Avenue was approved by the County Planning Commission Wednesday. The sign would be located on the southeast corner of the intersection within the official plan line; therefore, Martin agreed to remove the sign when the road is widened.

Campbell Water Company's petition for use permit to establish and maintain a public utility on the southwest corner of the Hamilon Avenue and Harrison Avenue intersection was approved. The commission has asked that the company submit a landscaping plan for the plant. The company proposes to install a well and a pump. Domestic and irrigating water would be supplied from the utility.

Loyalty Oath Administered To School Teachers

Elementary teachers of Campbell Union School District took the state-required loyalty oath at district meeting Wednesday afternoon. The oath was administered to the group by Trustees Ross C. Trowbridge and Edwin C. Van de Mark.

Non-certificated members of the district took the oath at a meeting Tuesday.

The district meeting, first of the school year for the teachers, featured Dr. Nan Allen of the County Department of Education.

Campbell Garden Club Invites Public To Participate In Annual Event

Chrysanthemums, from the big flowering spider types to the wee button pompoms, in red, gold, orange, white and variegated colors, will have their day in Campbell on Wednesday, November 1, when the Campbell Garden Club, Inc., sponsors its fall flower show.

The public is particularly invited to exhibit choice blooms in the show. There is no entry fee, neither is there an admission price to the show which will be open to all from 1 to 9 p.m. at the Campbell library hall.

Mrs. George H. Kolze, general chairman, has announced the following rules covering exhibits:

RULES

The hall will be open at 8:30 a.m. November 1, to receive entries, and all entries must be in the hands of the show committee not later than 10:30 a.m.

Exhibits must be in place for judging by 10:30 a.m. No one will be allowed in the hall during judging except the co-chairman and a clerk. ....

No entry may be removed before the 9 p.m. closing except by permission of the committee.

Specimen cut flowers are to be exhibited in containers provided by the committee.

When possible, specimen exhibits should be labeled with variety name. Trueness to type, for the variety, is one of the guides for judging. In all specimen exhibits perfection of growth and proper maturity, rather than great size alone, is important.

Because of limited work space, artistic arrangements should be as nearly ready as possible to put in place when taken into the hall.

First, second and third place awards, blue, red and white ribbons, respectively, will be made in each class unless less than three entries are in a given class. In the latter event, the class will not be judged.

CLASSES

Classes of exhibits will be as follows, the chairman stated:

SECTION A—Chrysanthemum, specimen bloom: large flowering, commercial varieties; large flowering, exhibition varieties; spider, spoon, hardy varieties, anemone, single varieties, pompoms—a. lge. type, b. intermed., c. button type; cascade or spray of bloom, any other kind not listed above.

Section B—Arrangement classes using chrysanthemums in each of the following sections: mass, line, flowers and foliage, flowers in old-fashioned containers, flowers—one kind or color, flowers—several kinds or colors, miniature—not over four inches in height.

Section C — Potted plants: any kind; any other kind of plant.

Section D — Non-competitive class: to consist of unusual plants or plant material not included in above schedule but of interest to others.

COMMITTEE

Event committee members are: staging, Mrs. G. Denny Wilson, chairman; Mesdames Monica Parr, J. N. Corvello, Emil Kollmer, John D. Cantoni, Henrietta Smith, A. Sloan, Andrew Bykowski, A. F. Leal, James Gleed.

Specimen tables — Mesdames Percy Lovejoy, Fred Smith, Mary Trigueiro, Martin S. Walsh, J. E. Schneider, Ben O'Dell, C. M. Gerevas, Fred Carson.

Classification — Mesdames L. Barber, C. C. Gilliam.

Hostesses—Mesdames H. Binley, F. Johnson, Barth O'Brien, Florence Wisler, Ethan Lanphear, L. Grattan.

Clerks—Mesdames Glenn Edick, E. W. Barnes.

Alone for the first time in a city...and no one to meet her. Then teen-age Jane, nearly in tears, saw a telephone.

THE DAY JANE DAWSON NEEDED A FRIEND
(And found Telephone Operator 11)

1. One of the first calls Operator 11 handled that quiet Sunday was from a public telephone in Union Station. "I missed my train connection and I've just got to reach my brother Mike," said a small voice. "He's with the Navy in Port City but I don't know how to call him." Operator 11 had heard such voices before. And as she said, "We'll find him," she was ringing an operator forty miles away.

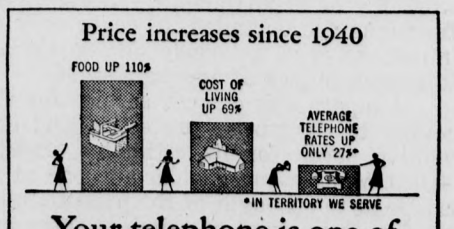

2. Didn't take Mike long to reach his sister after he'd been paged at the Port City station where he was nervously waiting. After he'd picked her up, Jane said, "That operator was so understanding. I don't know what I would have done." And later on her mother thanked Operator 11 in a letter to us which ended..."and I'd like to pin a medal on her. I'll never meet that operator. But she is our friend."

3. An unusual story? Not at all. We get many letters telling how our operators do their best to get the call through...no matter what. And we hear good reports about our linemen, installers, service representatives and others who meet the public directly. We like to receive these letters. For they tell us that you recognize "the spirit of service"... so much a part of telephone work... so important in making your telephone ever more valuable to you.

Feted at a surprise shower Tuesday evening was Miss Jeanne Richardson of Campbell who is engaged to E. L. "Al" Allinson of Redwood City. Hostesses were Miss Louella Rice, Joline Howard and Mary Lou Cline.

Approximately 25 guests gathered at the Cline residence to honor Miss Richardson. Many lovely gifts were presented to her in a large shipping crate by a "delivery man."

Refreshments were served from a table decorated with ivy and pink rosebuds surrounding a small cupid which stood beside a decorated book which was the cake.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson. She is attending Campbell high school where she is a senior.

Mr. Allinson is a member of the U.S. Air Force and is attending training school in Mississippi. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Allinson of Redwood City.

to be attended by surgeons from all parts of the world, will be highlighted by presentation of papers and demonstrations concerning most recent advances and techniques in surgery. On October 28, at an impressive ceremony, Dr. Snyder is to be honored by receiving the degree of Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, representing high achievement in surgical specialization. After leaving Boston, Dr. and Mrs. Snyder will spend two weeks visiting friends and relatives in New York and Pennsylvania. The office of the local surgeon will be closed for one month.

Netops Officers To Plan Events

Officers of Netops Council, Degree of Pocahontas, will meet at the home of Ruth Livingstone, 348 Harrison Avenue, at 8 p.m. next Monday to receive final instructions for the forthcoming visit of Grand Pocahontas Marcella Rice. In addition, final plans for the Netops carnival on November 10 will be discussed.

At the council meeting last Friday evening, Ruth Livingston was appointed the council representative to the community cherry tree meeting November 9.

Blanche Gilpatrick presided. Harriet Thome, chairman of the welfare committee, reported that two layettes have been completed. They will be on display October 27.

Six applicants for membership were accepted. They are Lillian Pellicone, Marguerite Shibles, Marie Infantino, Virginia O'Brien, Barbara J. Peterson and Viola Rogers.

At the close of the meeting Tina Pawsey, Ruth Livingston, Blanche Gilpatrick, Emilia Adolfo, Edith Anderson, Alice Pawsey and Harriet Thome left to attend the official visit of Great Pocahontas Marcella Rice to Minnequa Council, San Jose. Sarah Cunha of Wanda Council was also present.

Miss Giordano Becomes Bride Of Ronald Besken

Josephine Giordano became the bride of Ronald Fred Bensken during a double-ring candlelight ceremony in the First Baptist Church in San Jose. Rev. Clarence R. Sands officiated.

The new Mrs. Bensken is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nunzio Giordano of Campbell. She attended San Jose schools, and was a member of Torch and Laurel, San Jose High School girls' honor society. Her husband also attended San Jose schools, and studied at the Bible Institute in Los Angeles. He is now employed in San Jose.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a slipper satin bridal gown with off-shoulder neckline and yoke of Chantilly lace. Her bouffant tiered skirt was trimmed with chantilly lace and ended in a long, flowing train. A beaded halo held her lace-trimmed veil, and she carried a cascade bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Esther Giordano, sister of the bride. She wore a powder blue satin frock with full skirt, and yoke neckline and carried a French bouquet of deep rose asters. Bridesmaids were Grace Giordano, another sister of the bride; Angie Panelli, Marcia Donan, Rebecca Lecata and Janet Harder. Their dresses of orchid satin had matching crowns, full skirts and yoke necklines and they carried French bouquets of deep purple asters.

The bride's mother wore a wine colored dress with black and white accessories and a corsage of carnations. The mother of the benedict was attired in a wine colored suit set off with gray accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

Flowergirls Judith Artellan, niece of the bride, and Karen Shoemaker, cousin of the bridegroom, were attired in blue satin frocks complemented by French bouquets of light pink asters and sweetheart hats. Delbert Artellan, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony 300 friends and relatives greeted the newlyweds at a reception in the church parlors. The table was centered with a six-tiered cake, and white asters and chrysantemums decorated the reception rooms.

Family Service Director Talks To Moreland PTA

Mr. Leonard McConnell of Family Service Agency brought out the importance of good family life in providing the child with needed emotional security when he spoke last Wednesday night before 150 members of the Moreland Parent-Teacher Association. Mr. McConnell spoke after a potluck supper held in the Campbell High School cafeteria.

During the business session conducted by PTA President Mrs. K. L. Bitzer, plans for the big carnival to be held at Moreland School on Hallowe'en, from 4 to 10:30 p.m. were perfected.

Mrs. R. L. Allinger, El Paradiso Council president, spoke on Propositions Nos. 1 and 6 on the November ballot, explaining why the PTA is urging a "No" vote on the two measures. She said they would have a far-reaching ill effect on children of the state if the propositions are approved by voters.

Announcement was made of the movie benefit for the school library fund. This will be held at the Saratoga theater on November 17 and 18. The films will be "Treasure Island" and "Beaver Valley." All were urged to buy tickets from the Moreland school children.

Hostesses for the evening were mothers of primary grade children.

Food Sale To Be Sponsored By Ladies Guild

The Ladies Guild of the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd will meet Tuesday, October 24, in the home of Mrs. Orville Brig at 20 Esther Avenue, Los Gatos. Mrs. Caroline Hanson will be co-hostess.

On Saturday, October 28, the Ladies Guild will hold a food sale at the Glen Center Market in Willow Glen. Mrs. Anita Gaugler and Mrs. Bernice Lawrence will be in charge.

Miss Coombs hopes that all friends of Job's Daughters will attend and that all who wish to do so will attend in costume. Tickets for the dinner will serve as score cards for the evening.

Jeanne Currie, Honored Queen of Bethel 174, presided over the regular meeting and initiation ceremony October 14. Marian Gould, 280 Latimer Avenue, was welcomed as a new member of the organization.

At this meeting Deputy Guardian Virginia Currie paid her official visit and conducted inspection. She commended fine work done by the choir members under leadership of Marjorie Martin, directress of music.

A presentation was made to the deputy grand guardian in appreciation for her many hours of work with the members. Sue Miller, promoter of activities, worked out the word to the melody of "I've Got A Lovely Bunch of Cocoanuts"; Janis Henley, Bobbie Enochs, Patsy Irvin and Honored Queen Jeanne Currie played the part of the cocoanuts. Janet Coombs acted as barker.

Refreshments were served in the dining room. Patty Powell was chairman for the evening.

BETHEL BID TO DINNER, CANASTA FETE

Janet Coombs, Senior Princess of Bethel 174, Job's Daughters, is planning a gala Hallowe'en dinner and canasta card party on Monday evening, October 30. Reservations for the dinner may be made by phoning Campbell 3567.

PARENTS URGED TO JOIN PTA

When Governor Earl Warren proclaimed October 8 to 14 as Parent-Teacher Week in California, he stated in part, "I urge that during Parent-Teacher Week all Californians become familiar with the work of their local Parent-Teacher Associations with a view of fuller participation in the fine programs they have undertaken." This praise was given officially to contributions to community life by the California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

"This quotation fits right in with the need for more parents to join the PTA," says Loraine Thurber, publicity chairman for the San Tomas PTA. "This year's slogan of the California Congress of the PTA is 'Be One Of a Million.'

"It is only natural for people who are unfamiliar with the policies and principles of this organization to ask 'What do they do? Why should I join? What could I do if I did join?' So, for a better understanding, here are some of the policies and principles to give the general public a clearer idea of just what the PTA does:

"Major purpose of the Parent-Teacher Association is to secure the cooperation of parents, teachers and other adult citizens in all that concerns the education-welfare of the children.

"The PTA is non-sectarian, which guarantees a recognition of everyone to his own religious beliefs.

"The PTA is non-partisan.

"The San Tomas PTA is sponsoring a drive, starting this week, in an effort to help the California Congress of Parents and Teachers to realize its slogan—'Be One Of A Million.'

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Much confusion in public relations and thinking is abroad and free society is in very great danger. Unless adequate, effective solutions are found in time for the grave, unprecedented problems of the country facing us at this time, it is entirely within the realm of possibility and even probability that our precious civilization will be not only interrupted but blasted and that another dark age will scourge mankind.

A little over a century and a half ago our infant nation was governed by the Articles of Confederation, an extremely loose contractual document for a sovereign people. Economic relations were shattered, wide-spread melancholy prevailed and the hoped for peace following the Revolutionary War was almost empty. In the nick of time, however, important steps were taken to make amends which resulted in the adoption of the Constitution of the United States of America as the fundamental or supreme law of the land and thus our national problems were solved as by magic.

Let us look at the preamble of this great document which was pronounced by that eminent English statesman, William Gladstone who for more than a half century was in public life in the British Empire, as "the most wonderful work ever struck off in a given time by the brain and purpose of man."

Here is the preamble: "We, the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."

The expression, "We, the people" speaks volumes. In brief, it makes it very clear that our forefathers acted nobly and it very definitely implies that we of today have a real responsibility to assume and to discharge.

Far too many of our people have taken freedom and all that it imylies for granted. Great numbers of our population assume that we have a one-way street from the government to the individual, never appearing to realize the individual owes moral, spiritual and material support to the government. With such a philosophy and practice, governments die at the top and fail to carry out the purposes for which they were instituted. The capable men in the Constitutional Convention of 1787 understood this thoroughly and guarded against it.

Because of the grave circumstances in which we find ourselves, let no adult citizen among us fail to discharge the implied obligation set forth in our fundamental law by means of which, "We, the people" are enjoined to act at the ballot box on November 7.

It is your responsibility as citizens to elect those men who have pledged themselves to perpetuate these ideals.

These men are Earl Warren for Governor, Richard Nixon for U.S. Senator and Charles Gubser for Assemblyman, 29th District.

Buc Eleven Set For Local Debut Today

Campbell Gridmen Meet San Jose Tech; Drop Toughie To Huskies Friday, 20-6

One of these days, Lady Fortune will cast a benificient smile over the Campbell high school grid squad and some opposing team will suffer the consequences.

San Jose Tech Tigers, who meet the local eleven this afternoon on the Bucs' home lot, may very well be the recipients of the aforementioned hospitality.

Campbell, now winless in three games, has run into a wall plastered with numerous injuries, bad breaks, and sundry other football ills.

In Tech, the Bucs do not meet the strongest club in the SCVAL. In fact, both teams have the dubious honor of sharing last place in the loop with a total of no wins.

Last Friday in the Washington game at Centerville, Campbell played one of its best, if not the best, games of the early season. True, final results lean heavily on the ultimate score. In this case the locals got the short end of a 20 to 6 contest.

Statistics afford ample proof that the Bucs made their presence felt in no mediocre way. Give and take a few breaks the score would have been closer, but for sure.

Campbell made twice as many first downs and outgained the Washington crew on the ground. Long runs and successful hope-and-pray pass plays gave the Centerville club the game.

This afternoon's fray marks the first home game for the Bucs. Fullback Charlie McBain, the best runner on the field last Friday, has been chosen team captain by his mates.

After a scoreless opening period, Washington took a 7 to 0 lead midway in the second quarter. The payoff play totalled 40 yards on a pass from Fullback George Pagan to his wing back Gil Cicairos.

The Bucs came right back to drive to the Huskies' one-inch line but before another play could be called time ran out and the first half ended. Score: Huskies 7 - Bucs 0.

In the third quarter the Bucs instigated a 60-yard march that paid off with Saia scoring from two yards out. Calabray and McBain augmented the drive with powerful canters up the middle and around end. The try for extra point missed. Score: Huskies 7, Bucs 6.

Not to be outdone, the Huskies retaliated immediately following the kick-off. In four plays they had their second tally. Eusebio Elizanez went over from the six-yard line. Score: Washington13, Campbell 6.

Until the final three minutes of play the Bucs ate up large hunks of terrain but could not add to their six points.

With nine minutes gone in the final period, Elizanez broke off tackle and ran to the two where he was downed from behind. The ensuing play found Fullback Jack Bruder going over. Kick was good. Final score: Washington 20 and Campbell 6.

Hi-Y Organizations Plan Active Year; Jr. Rally Tomorrow

If plans and ambitions of the executives are any indication of things to come, Campbell YMCA activity will reach its highest peak this fall.

At a recent meeting of the local working committee it was announced that the over-all "Y" program intends to register approximately 135 boys active in various clubs.

Already five Hi-Y clubs are organized locally, according to Jack Smith, supervisor of the Campbell area. One Jr. Hi-Y and one Gray-Y club are also operating successfully.

Steps have been taken to start another Gray-Y in Campbell and inaugurate a similar club in the Cambrian district.

The annual Gray-Y Rally will be held tomorrow at the San Jose YMCA, Smith said. Any boy of grammar-school age interested should meet with the group at the Boy Scout hall no later than 8:00 a.m. The session starts at 8:30 and will end about 12:30 p.m. Transportation will be provided.

This annual get-together provides the youths of various clubs with opportunities to exchange ideas, plans and general news. Smith said that "fun and frolic" will prevail.

On the higher level a "Youth in Government" day will hold forth at Stanford university, Nov. 11. The all-day affair will be attended by three men from each Hi-Y club. Transportation will be likewise provided.

Committee officials announced that a meeting place for Jr. Hi-Y and Gray-Y clubs is needed. An increase in membership has forced officials to seek another meeting place.

Liteweight Cagers Lose Two To W. G.

Campbell C and D hardwood squads met with a double dose of second-half whammies Tuesday afternoon as both teams fell before Willow Glen on the Bucs' home floor.

The C's enjoyed a half-time lead of one point before succumbing in the final moments, 18 to 14. H. Shumway and D. Jordan led the local club with 4 and 7 points respectively.

Just like their bigger brothers, the D's also left the court at half-time with a one-point cushion. But the final score read 19 to 10 in favor of Willow Glen. G. Hoover and R. Arnaud tallied four points apiece to head Campbell scorers.

Bucbabe Eleven Blanks S. J.; Meet San Lorenzo Next

Continuing to amaze everyone but themselves, the Campbell junior varsity gridmen won its second consecutive game via the shutout route Tuesday as they blanked the San Jose JV's, 16 to 0 on home ground.

Adding further proof to their potential is the fact that they used the same four basic plays that trimmed Lincoln last week by the tune of 21 to 0.

In the first half the Bucbabes tallied on a 15-yard pass from Duane Burrows to Larry Periera. Albert Yamashita's try for point was good.

A safety was added soon after when the entire Buc line overpowered the Bulldog quarterback in his end zone after a faulty pass from center.

Periera cored his second TD on an off-tackle smash from 5 yards out late in the third period. Yamashita kicked his second successful point.

Burrows has proven himself to be an exceptional passer. In fact, according to Coach Junior Morgan, Burrows has completed 80 per cent of his tosses. Since no official statistic data is available, the aforementioned percentage is an approximation.

The plays used by the Campbabes were three simple line thrusts and only one pass with similar patterns.

The JV's will risk their unbeaten and untied record Thursday afternoon when they play host to the San Lorenzo Cubs from Boulder Creek.

DAD'S ALRIGHT . . . Last Friday at the San Jose State-Loyola university football game the fathers of all SJSC students were honored and lauded with colorful card stunts and appropriate band renditions.

This recognition of the dads marked the first annual "Dads Day" at the state institution. In addition to the aforementioned activity, several fathers of varsity gridmen were introduced to the crowd at halftime from the field.

Seven fathers were escorted to the 40-yard line by Glenn Hartranft, director of physical education at State. Among the "papas" individually introduced were Lee Wilson, dad of Billy Wilson, stellar end, and Earl B. Buck, father of Wayne Buck, injured halfback.

Incidentally, Wayne, injured with a dislocated wrist in the Stanford contest, will be available for limited duty tonight when the Spartans travel northward to Kezar stadium for a game with the University of San Francisco.

In all, he has seen action in only one play thus far this season. But Coach Bob Bronzan, fully aware of Buck's defensive prowess, intends to use him often once that belligerent wrist behaves itself.

VARIETY PLUS . . . In this modern era of football that features the "T" formation, Split-T, and various similar attacking formations, it is indeed strange when a team meets three different offenses in its first three games. Particularly a high school team.

Such is the case of Campbell high. It can be truthfully said that the sophomores and juniors dominating Coach Jim Muir's squad are learning about varied offenses the hard way, but for sure.

In their first game, the Bucs met the Lincoln Lions, and the straight T formation. Following week found the local club facing Mt. View and its single wing. Not to be outdone, Washington threw a double-wing offense at the Bucs last week.

Shades of Knute Rockne, about all that remains, so far as offenses are concerned, are the Flying Wedge (just this side of murder) and the "O" formation. The latter offense occurs when all the backs refuse to carry the ball. The coach then yells "Ohh" before he collapses.

ENDLESS CIRCLE . . . The Buc eleven has played three games thus far this season. And John Hoover, first-string end, has the dubious honor of getting hurt in every game. He has accounted for this perfect score by suffering hip pointers the first two weeks, and by way of variation, a boil infection this week. Yet he has played (before falling to Mr. Trouble) in all contests.

Clifford Gerlach Graduates Today From CHP School

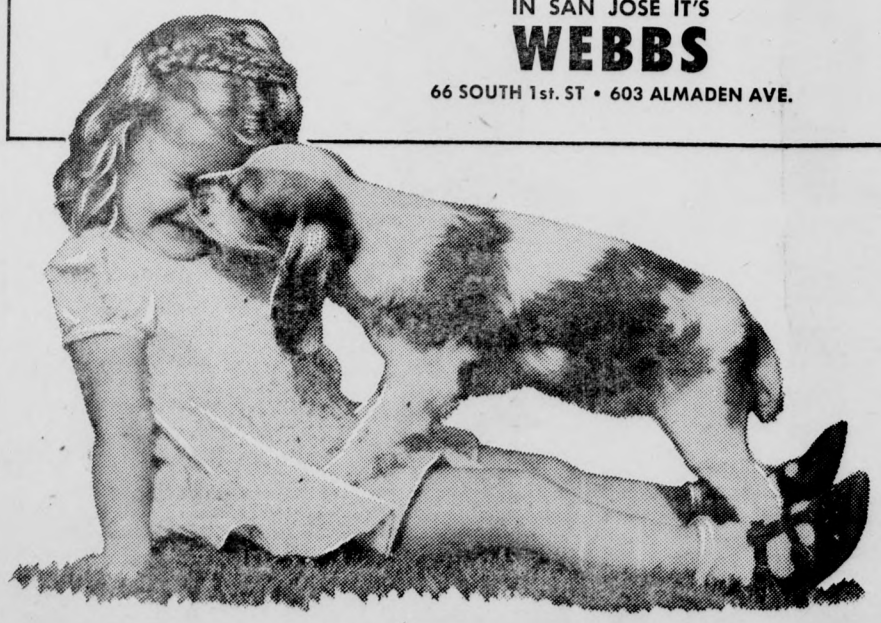

Clifford Gerlach, 149 N. Winchester Road, Campbell, recruit highway patrolman to be graduated from the California Highway Patrol Academy today, has been asigned for duty to the Santa Clara squad area, it was announced today. The assignment is effective October 26.

Gerlach is a member of a class of 45 recruits completing a nine-week basic training course at the Patrol Academy. Following his graduation he will receive further training in the field under the guidance and supervision of experienced officers.

Campbell Grammar school, a group of All-Americans, vintage 1960, are cavorting about in their own touch-football league.

Eagerness instead of know-how and spirit in lieu of fundamentals keynote the sixth-grade club under the tutorship, direction, training, and management of Duane Beaubien, grammar school teacher.

In their season opener, the flyweights who average 11 years young and overload the scales at 93 pounds lost a toughie to their contemporaries of San Tomas, 18 to 6.

Watching these kids scramble about in organized confusion is often more fun than witnessing a highly-technical game between two major grid powers.

Beaubien said that plans are in the making to formulate a larger grammar school touch league with Moreland and Cambrian schools yet to be notified.

REFEREE'S TIME OUT . . . Monday noon the Rotary club had as guest speaker Tommy Fitzpatrick, recognized referee of the Pacific Coast Football Conference.

He spoke on "Football as Seen by the Officials on the Field." But one timely bit of information supplied by the amiable guest is worth mentioning specifically.

We all know that penalties called by the officials bring forth automatic catcalls and sounds of dissention. That is the fan's prerogative. They feel that they have the right to sound off despite the fact the penalty was obvious.

Fitzpatrick, recreational director for the city of Santa Clara, said that the pass interference penalty is the chief "bone of contention with grandstand referees." Note the recent USC-Cal game when a pass interference penalty was called on the Bears' secondary. All the northern papers and others raised a big rumpus claiming the penalty to be unfair.

But Fitzpatrick revealed that motion pictures absolved the officials of all blame and that the pass receiver was fouled.

"The trouble with the fans is they don't realize that a pass interference penalty may be called some 30 yards from the actual spot where ball meets man," the Notre Dame graduate claimed.

Conference Ref Gives Views On Football Officiating

Thomas M. Fitzpatrick, Pacific Coast Football Conference referee, vowed refereeing is a tough job, then went on to tell Campbell Rotarians Monday noon what makes it difficult.

Fitzpatrick, recreation director for the ciy of Santa Clara, said the recognized referees must submit to frequent written examination during the course of a season, since rules of the game are constantly changing.

Referees carry heavy injury insurance, and rightly, said the speaker, for injury is often unavoidable when 22 grid heavies fling themselves at each other during a play and the referee finds himself in the middle. Fitzpatrick said he had suffered a few knocks himself. He stressed that the bulk of referee injuries are received in line of duty and are accidents. Few are caused by irate fans.

Not only the fans and their "Kill the Referee" chant cause the referees to be careful in calling their decisions. A referee's future depends upon his accuracy, said Fitzpatrick, for one error in calling may be enough to cancel a man's chances for a return engagement with any college. Two or three mistakes, and the future of a referee is almost nil.

Despite general beliefs to the contrary, the Pacific Coast Conference referees receive only $100 per game, he commented.

As for difference of opinions of fans and referees, he said, that is understandable. He and other referees even conducted an experiment to check results of refereeing from the stands. One of the referees remained on the field, while the others took to the bleachers and called the plays by phone. The results were far from accurate, and the referees voted to return to their field observation posts.

Fitzpatrick is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame.

Next week, Rotarians will hear Attorney Richard Morton speak on various propositions on the November state ballot.

Adult Basketball Features League Competition Again

Under the direction of Bert Robinson, cage mentor of the Buc varsity, the gym and locker facilities will be open every Tuesday and Thursday evening.

Like last year, two leagues will eventually be foromed. One loop will be composed of Tuesday night participants and the other division open to Thursday's crowd.

At the moment, Robinson, with the aid of Jim Muir and Junior Morgan, is busy organizing teams and getting practice sessions rolling. He said that the leagues should be ready for play sometime in November and continue until March.

A registration fee of $1.00 will be charged to all who attend either session. Thus the financial situation concerning toowels, lights, etc., will be alleviated.

Last season approximately 65 men composed 12 teams. Robinson said that trophies will be awarded to the winner of each loop.

Anyone desiring further information should contact Robinson.

San Francisco has 4000 acres devoted to recreation, including parks, golf courses and swimming pools.

GIRL SCOUT News

TROOP 22

Girl Scout Troop 22 of Campbell announces that Helen Becker is to be its new leader. She is known as "Patches" by the girls who went to Big Sur this summer.

Miss Becker was the nurse at the Girl Scout established camp. She is now on the County Hospital staff. Under her able supervision, and with the help of her co-leader, Mrs. Howard Keech, the girls hope to earn their Curved Bar and then go on to Senior Scouting .

Baptist Church Pastor To Lead Evangelistic Rally

"Can I Know That I Am Saved?" is the topic scheduled for the evangelistic Sunday evening hour at 7:30 o'clock in the Campbell Baptist Church, as announced by the pastor, the Rev. Lyle E. Cushman. The service is opened with an hour of singspiration. Special music is provided.

At the 11 o'clock morning worship hour the pastor will speak on "Spiritual Nearsightedness!" A growing Bible School meets at 9:45 a.m. with classes for all ages. A young married peoples' class has recently been organized by the school, and is being taught by the pastor.

In the "Church in Prayer and Study" on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. a series of discussions is being conducted in the book of Galatians.

The Hobby Craft Club meets Fridays at 7:30 p.m. Boys in the neighborhood are invited to attend.
